

Mental Measurements Yearbook and Tests in Print

A Guide to the Descriptive Entries

Entry Number: Number cited in all indexes when referring to this test.

Title: Test titles are printed in boldface type; secondary or series titles are set off by colons.

Population: A description of the groups for whom the test is intended.

Administration: Individual or group is indicated.

Distribution: This is noted only for tests that are put on a special market by the publisher.

Time: Amount of time to take and administer the test. The first number is the working time allowed examinees; the second (parenthesized) number is the total time needed to administer the test.

Cross References: For tests that have been previously listed in a Buros publication, cross references to the reviews, excerpts, and references will be noted here. "9:1410," for example, refers to test 1410 in the Ninth Mental Measurements Yearbook; "T4:3010" refers to test 3010 in Tests in Print IV.

[420]

The Hypothetical Test: Reading

Purpose: Designed to "measure achievement"

in reading."

Population: Grades 9-12. Publication Dates: 1989-1994.

Acronym: HYPE. -

Scores, 3: Vocabulary, Comprehension, and Total.

Administration: Individual or group.

Forms, 3: Survey, Abbreviated, Complete -

Battery.

Restricted Distribution: Distribution of survey form resitricted to school principals.

Price Data, 2020: $135 per complete kit including 100 test forms, scoring key, and manual (1998, 120 pages); $20 per scoring key; $75 per manual.

Foreign Language Editions: Survey formavailable in Spanish.

Time: 50(60) minutes.

Comments: May be self-scored.

Author: Jane J. Doe.

Publisher: Hypothetical Tests, Inc. —

Cross References: See T4:3010 (2 references); for reviews by John Roe and Robert Smith of an earlier edition, see 9:1410 (6 references).

Purpose: A brief, clear statement describing the purpose of the test; often a quotation from the manual.

Publication Dates: The inclusive range of publication dates.

Acronym: Acronym by which the test may be commonly known.

Scores: The number and names of explicit scores.

Forms: All available forms, parts, and levels are listed.

Price Data: Price information is reported for test packages, answer sheets, accessories, specimen sets.

Special Editions: Various types of special editions are listed here, including languages and large print.

Comments: Notations and remarks.

Author: All test authors' names are reported, exactly as printed on the test materials.

Publisher: The publisher's full address can be found in the Publishers Directory and Index.

This is not copyrighted material. Reproduction and dissemination are encouraged.

See the Buros Center for Testing website at buros.org.

Buros Center for Testing University of Nebraska-Lincoln

21 Teachers College Hall Lincoln, NE 68588-0348